Sir,

With reference to the correspondence ending with your letter dated 25th May 1897 No 329 D, SN78 I have the honor to state that two stations for registration of traffic one at Pattukkottai at the cost of the Local Funds and another at Arantanghi at the cost of the Provincial Funds were established for one

one year from May 1897 to April 1898 and the statistics of traffic were registered as per instructions contained in the said letter. The abstract statements prepared from them are herein enclosed.

2 As instructions to record particulars regarding passenger traffic were received only at the end of May 1897 the information has been furnished from June in Pattukkottai and from July in Arantangi.

I have the honour to be
