No. 892 P., 24th August 1898.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

LOCAL AND MUNICIPAL DEPARTMENT.

ORDER—No. 892 P., dated 24th August 1898.

His Excellency the Governor in Council thinks that a plague Inspection Station is now required at Pakala for the protection of Tirupati and Vellore and of the Southern Districts generally, and that it should be opened, as soon as possible, in view of the approaching Brahmotsavam festival at Tirumalai which commences on the 18th September 1898. The Collector of North Arcot is requested to make the necessary arrangements, and to intimate to the Government, the Surgeon-General, the Inspector General of Police, and the Agent, South Indian Railway, the date on which inspection can begin. For the present, only the train from Dharmavaram need be examined. The Agent, South Indian Railway, is requested to order the detention of the train and to afford every facility to the Inspecting Medical Staff, which will consist of one Assistant Surgeon, one Hospital Assistant and one Inspectress. He is also requested to erect, if required by the Collector, an inspection shed on the Railway station platform at the cost of the Railway Administration. The Collector should build without delay on an open site near the station, a plague hospital with accommodation for two European and six Native patients, and a suspect camp with accommodation for four Europeans and twenty Natives. Sheds should also be erected for the inspecting staff, if necessary. Dirty clothes, &c., should be disinfected as prescribed in G.O., No. 816 M., dated 6th April 1897, G. O., No. 1101 M., dated 6th May 1897, and para. 40 of the instructions printed on page 105 of the "Madras Plague Regulations and Rules."

2. The following notification will be published in the Fort St. George Gazette:—

NOTIFICATION.

"His Excellency the Governor of Fort St. George in Council hereby appoints the railway station at Pakala in the North Arcot district to be an inspection station under No. 14 of the Regulations prescribed under the Epidemic Diseases Act, 1897, for district Municipalities and other towns and villages, and published in Notification No. 897, Fort St. George Gazette, dated 18th December 1897, Part I, pages 1583—1589."
