SIR,

As payments to the extent of Rs 1,24,000 are likely as explained in the notes on the Madras Railway six months estimates, to be made to the Madras Railway Company, during the current official year, on account of Surplus Profits and additional Contribution to the Provident Fund, I have the honor to request that the Government of India be asked to allot the necessary grant under 39 Guaranteed Companies to meet the outlay.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,

Your most obedient servant,
J. J. Hensley
