I enclose a certificate by two doctors recommending me a grant of 30 days leave and I beg you will be so good as to obtain the sanction of Government to an extension of my privilege leave up to the commencement of the Xmas holidays.

Another favour I ask is that the 2nd instalment of my advance be not recovered next month but in January and the third in February. This long illness has put me to very considerable expense and I shall be unable to meet some pressing liabilities next month unless the favour be granted.

The amount to be recovered monthly on account of an advance of salary made to an Officer should not ordinarily be affected by his going on leave, but it is open to a local government to order a reduction in any case in which it deems it right to do so.
