ACCOUNT.

To.

Simla, 29th November 1898

With reference to the six months estimate of the transaction of the Calicut-Cannanore extension and Tripet Branch of the Madras Railway for the year

2. I am to add that should the Madras Railway Company find it possible to spend more than $11\frac{1}{2}$ lakhs in India on these extensions before 31st March 1899 the Government of India will be pleased to reallocate a portion of the grant now withdrawn.

3. I am also to request that in future the six months estimate

estimates may include outlay in England as well as in India.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

W. B. B. B.
