PROCEEDINGS OF THE MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

READ the following paper:—

From the Agent to the Governor-General, Rajputana, No.
309 C, dated 28th January 1898.

I have the honour to forward, for information, a copy of the rules issued by me under section 2 of the Epidemic Diseases Act 1897.

(Enclosure)

Whereas it has been ordered that the tickets of all ~~pass~~ passengers travelling by rail from the Bombay Presidency shall be punch marked so as to denote that the holder of the ticket has arrived from a plague infected area, the Agent to the Governor General Rajputana and Chief Commissioner, Ajmere- Merwara is pleased to make the following rules in exercise of the powers conferred by section 2 sub-section 2 clause (b) of the Epidemic Diseases Act, 1897.

1 . When a passenger with a punch marked ticket alights at any railway station in Rajputana or Ajmere-Merwara his name and address shall be taken by the Railway-police at that station.

2. If the station is situate in Ajmere-Merwara the name and address of the passenger shall be forthwith communicated by the police to the Commissioner, Ajmere-Merwara and the District Superintendent of Police Ajmere, who will arrange that any case of sickness occurring within ten days in the house of the newly arrived traveller shall be reported at once by the Revenue or Police officials.

3. If the station is not situate in British India the name and

and address of the passenger shall be forthwith communicated by the Police to the Political Officer of the State in which the Railway station is situate.
