SUBJECT.

Requesting the sanction of the Local Govt. to the balance of Rs 162-2-2 now outstanding against Mr. S. Appan Sengar being written off.

The clerk's permanent pay is 32

The pay of lowest grade acct. is 80

The clerk was promoted (as had been always the practice) to Temporary Accountant and as such recd. 80 per m.

The Acct. (Int. ruled that the procedure was incorrect and that the clerk should have been given officiating allowance of

(This is = $32 + \frac{80}{5} = 48$)

and that the excess payment should be recovered i.e. monthly instalment = $\frac{1}{3}$ of his pay = Rs 10.10.8

The clerk has been amount to be retrenched in Rs 166

which means that the clerk will have to live on Rs 21.5.4 for 15 1/2 months until the amt. is cleared off. As the overpayment was not due to any fault of the clerk, the Examiners propose to write it off under the powers delegated to local Govts which seems the only thing to do, but under the order of Govt. we must refer it to Financial Dept 18/2/98.

SIR,

Mag

In continuation of this office letter N^o 15 dated 7th ultimo I have the honour to state that the Accountant General, Public Works Department, to whom a further reference on the subject was made, still considers that officiating promotions only are admissible to the vacancies caused by the absence of accountants on long leave.

2. The circumstances under which
T. Appen Syengar was promoted to Accountant 4th grade, Temporary rank, and the great hardship involved in his now being declared eligible for appreciating promotions only, and being required to refund the excess salary passed to him are dealt with in my letter referred to above.

3 I beg now to request the sanction

of the Local Government under the powers
delegated in the Public Works Department
Code Volume I Chapter I paragraph 41 A (Standing order N^o 136 dated 28th May 1896) May 6
to the balance of Rs 162-2-2 now outstanding against Mr T Appen Syng as being written off, as he is not responsible for the over-payment, and will with his small income, be greatly embarrassed by being subjected to deduction for the next twelve months or more.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most Obedient Servant,

SUBJECT.

Transferred to the Financial Dept with the recommendation that the over payment of acting allowances amounting to Rs 162-2-2 be sanctioned under the power delegated to Local Govt under Govt of India Financial Dept Resⁿ No 5102 of 25th October 1915

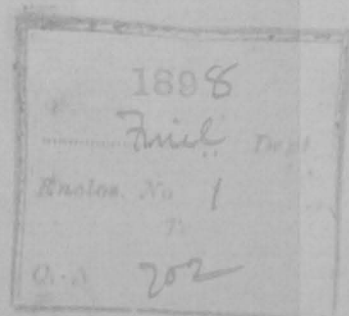

The Clerk, whose substantive pay is Rs 32 per mensem, was in accordance with previous practice promoted to Accountant II grade temporary on Rs 80 per mensem in place of an Accountant on leave on Medical Certificate (G.O. No 563 of 16th August 1917).

It has since been ruled that in such cases officiating promotions only can be given. As officiating Accountant II grade, the Clerk is entitled to Rs 32 + $\frac{1}{3} \times 80$ or Rs 48 per mensem.

If the difference overdrawn Rs 162-2-2 be now recovered, it will place the Clerk under stoppage of $\frac{1}{3}$ of his pay of Rs 32 for a period of about 15 months.

As the overpayment of acting allowance was due to no fault of the Clerk, and as its recovery will involve considerable hardship, it is considered that the special circumstances of the case are such as to justify an exemption from the operation of the rule being sanctioned under the above quoted Financial Dept Resⁿ. The amount involved in the sanction is less than Rs 500 and the case otherwise seems to comply with all the conditions of the Resⁿ.
