Extract from Mr. J. H. Dinwoodie's agreement with the Madras Railway Co. Dated 7th July 1897.

8. In the event of the said John Frederick Dinwoodie becoming in the opinion of the Company's Medical Officer in India permanently incapacitated by illness for the service of the Company in India, the Company shall thereupon be at liberty to terminate the engagement of the said John Frederick Dinwoodie forthwith, but in such case the Company shall defray his passage home by any route at their option, if the said John Frederick ^{Dinwoodie} is about forthwith to return to England, provided that in the opinion of the said Medical Officer such incapacity is not occasioned by any impropriety of conduct on the part of the said John Frederick Dinwoodie & that he shall be provided with a certificate of good conduct from the proper Officer of the Company, in that behalf.

9. In the event of the said John Frederick Dinwoodie being obliged by illness to leave India temporarily, or being while in India disabled from the discharge of his duties by illness, provided that it shall be satisfactorily established that such necessity exists, and that it is not occasioned by any impropriety of conduct on the part of the said.

SIR,

Referring to your endorsement
no. 1685 of the 8th instant on copy of letter from the Government of India no. 1485 dated 31st ultimo, I have the honor to enclose copies of paras 8 and 9 of the agreement entered into between officers of the Company and the Board, also copy of para 7 of a Subordinate's agreement. From these clauses it will be seen that Covenanted employees returning home on sick leave have the cost of the passage paid by the Company.

Sir,

In reply to your endorsement N^o 1685 of the 8th June 1898 (received today) I have the honor to inform you that the Agreements of this Company with its Covenanted employes contain the following clause :-

"And the Board shall also provide the said
 " * * * a like passage to England at the " expense of the Company at the expiration of " the said term of * * * years, if the conduct " of the said * * * has been satisfactory " and he be about forthwith to return to " England, and also on the termination of " this Agreement, through the said * * *
 " being under the necessity from illness of " returning home, provided it shall be satis" factorily established that such necessity " exists, and that it is not occasioned by any " neglect or impropriety of conduct on the part " of the said * * * and that he shall have " obtained a certificate of good conduct from " the proper officer of the Company in that " behalf; and the Company shall in such " case be at liberty to terminate the engagement

"engagement of the said ... forthwith."
 It is further provided that if covenanted employes continue in the Company's service after the expiration of the period for which originally engaged the terms and conditions of their agreements shall be considered as applicable so far as they can be to such services.

2. Under these circumstances an employe can only claim a passage to England on the termination of his Agreement and not on returning home on sick leave.
