STAFF.

Weighing Machine Inspector— Hitherto the duty of examining and repairing the platform weighing machines and weighbridges has been undertaken by fitters deputed from the Locomotive staff. This practice has not been found satisfactory and it is considered advisable to obtain the services of a specially trained man. The Madras Railway sometime ago engaged an Inspector from an English firm of Weighing Machine manufacturers on a salary of Rs. 300-25-350 per mensem, and found the experiment very satisfactory. I therefore request the sanction of the Board to the appointment of a trained Weighing Machine Inspector on a similar salary in place of the present fitter on Rs. 200 per mensem; should this suggestion be approved I propose asking Government to authorize the appointment being made in England.

WEIGHING MACHINE INSPECTOR.

With reference to the paragraph in your letter No. 584 of 4th May, recommending the appointment of a specially trained man to take charge of the Company's weighbridges and weighing machines, the Board agree that it is desirable to create such an appointment, and they authorise you to apply to Government for sanction to indent for a trained practical weighbridge Inspector to be appointed in this country for service in India on a salary not exceeding
Rs. 300—25—350 per mensem.
