Public Works Department, Railway Branch.

Simla, the 2nd September 1899.

Sir,

In continuation of Public Works Department No. 47 R.P., dated the 27th April 1899, I am directed to state that if, as the Government of India understand, second hand rails are not available for the construction of the Calicut-Baliapatam Extension, a light section of new rails should be used instead.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

W. J. Cunningham
Offg: Under Secretary.
