Madras Railway Company
Traffic Manager's Office
Central Station, Madras, 10th May 1899.

The Agent and Manager,
Rayapuram.

Dear Sir,

I beg to forward herewith a gratuity form in favour of No. 49 Syed Moideen late Chief Passenger Guard and I shall be obliged if you will kindly advise me whether you are prepared to support this application to the Board for a gratuity amounting to 12 month's pay in the case of this old and deserving Mahamadan Guard.

Syed Moideen has been known to you personally for many years. He entered the Madras Railway service in March 1861 as Under Guard and has therefore completed a service of upwards of 38 years during which time there is not a single censure of any consequence against him.

I think I may safely say that we have no guard in the service at the present time who has performed similar duties with greater satisfaction to the Officers of the Railway and to the Public, and I have therefore much pleasure in recommending Syed Moideen for a gratuity of one year's pay if you can see your way to recommend this.

Syed Moideen as will be seen from the gratuity form is retiring on account of old age and failing sight.

Yours faithfully

10. The Board have had under consideration the strong recommendation (referred to in para. 17 of 2,413) of the Traffic Manager, supported by you, that a retiring gratuity of Rs. 840, equal to twelve months' pay, may be granted to Chief Passenger Guard Syed Mohideen on his leaving the service on account of old age and failing sight. The usual grant in such cases is for a sum equal to six months' salary, but this is a very special case, and having regard to Mohideen's exceptionally good service of upwards of thirty-eight years, during which time it is stated that there is not a single censure of any consequence against him, the Board are pleased to approve and support your and the Traffic Manager's recommendation, which they hope will receive the sanction of Government.
