To

As the value of the copy-stamped papers hitherto used has been credited in the accounts of the Civil Department, the payments made on account of copying should apparently be debited to the same head. It is however for Government to decide whether taking into consideration that the Special Deputy Collector directed the use of copy-stamped papers instead of recovering copying fees from parties in cash 1897, by mistake, the charges hitherto incurred should be adjusted in the P.W.D. against the same head as the pay and - allowances of the Special Deputy Collecso decided, it would be necessary to as-when sanctioned by Government, under --
