MADRAS.

SIR,

With reference to the Audit Note on the State of the allotment for English Expenditure for the current Official Year, sent to you with my letter No. 1209 dated 6th December 1899, I have the honor to request sanction to the transfer of Rs 1,88,000 from the amount allotted for Expenditure in England to that allotted for outlay in India. This is required in consequence of it being anticipated that the amount to be required from Revenue for Stores issued, and sold, will fall short of the sum originally provided for in the Capital Budget for 1899-1900.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,

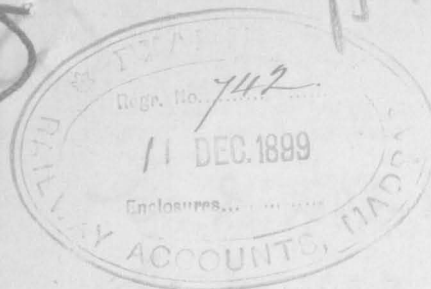

Your Most Obedient Servant, ^{Wm}

Full measure
