SIR,

THE Government of North-Western Provinces and Oudh has suggested that the accounts of the trade by rail and river should distinguish unrefined sugar from gur, râb, jaggery, molasses, etc. The suggestion has been approved by the Government of India, and I have the honour to request that the head Sugar may, with effect from the 1st April 1899, be subdivided as follows:—

	(b) Gur , rab , jaggery, molasses and other crude saccharine produce.

3. The rate of deduction from gross weight to arrive at net weight in the record for sugar unrefined may be the same as for sugar refined, namely, 1 per cent, and that for gur, rāb, jaggery and molasses 1·5 per cent.

4. The necessary value rates should be ascertained and stated regularly for each of the two sub-heads.
