HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR.
THE HON'BLE MR. ARUNDEL E.C.S.I.,
THE HON'BLE MR. H. M. WINTERBOTHAM, I.C.S.

Extension of the Indian Tramways Act to the whole of the Madras Presidency.

FOR ORDERS.

Besides the Calicut Tramway there are now two light railways under contemplation in this Presidency for construction under the Tramways Act. The Indian Tramways Act however has not heretofore been extended to any part of the Presidency outside the limits of the City of Madras. The time appears therefore to have now come for extending the Act to the whole Presidency, and with retrospective effect, as from the 1st October 1898, so as to cover the Calicut Tramway case.

The Local and Municipal Department concurring in this opinion I append for the approval of His Excellency and Honourable Members a draft of a proposed Notification extending the Act to the whole Presidency

Arrang. specially with the Pres. Secy that this notification shall appear in next Wednesday's Gazette. Trust in urgent.
