Dear Sir,

Gratuity to Mr. W. Smith, Office Manager.

In forwarding the enclosed form of application for gratuity on behalf of Mr. W. Smith, Office Manager of the Traffic Manager's Office, who has been compelled to resign his appointment on the grounds of failing health as per medical certificate enclosed, I beg to ask that special application be made to the Board and to Government for the grant of a gratuity equal to 12 months pay on account of his long and specially meritorious service. Mr. Smith entered this Department in June 1862 and so had 36½ years service when he retired. He served in this office until 1867, when he was sent out on the line as a Station Master and afterwards as an Inspector. He was for several years in charge of Jolarpet Station and in 1878 was again brought into this office as Office Manager. From this time until 1889, Mr. Smith's permanent appointment remained remained the same but he acted on several occasions in charge of Salt Bataurs, Goods Depot, being eventually appointed to the responsible position of Goods Agent on Rs. 400 per mensem.

2. Mr. Smith also acted as Officer in charge of the Gooty and Jalapet Traffic Divisions on two occasions but after reverting to his permanent appointment as Goods Agent, he in June 1895 on account of failing health, found himself unequal to the out-door duties of that post and reverted to the position of Office Manager of the Traffic Manager's Office on Rs. 250²⁷⁵ per mensem, in which position he continued until the date of his resignation.

3. Mr. Smith has always been a most deserving servant of the company and when, from a lack of trained European officers, he was entrusted with greater responsibilities than appertained to his permanent post he showed himself thoroughly worthy of the confidence placed in him.

4. The amount to Mr. Smith's credit in the Provident Institution including his own subscriptions, the company's contributions and interest, on his retirement was Rs. 3,311-3-11 only after a service of 36½ years.
