No. 38407—Queen's Regulations—1468, dated 8th April 1899.

From—The Under Secretary of State for War,
To—His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief in India.

I am directed, by the Secretary of State for War, to request that you will be so good as to note that the following is to be substituted for paragraph 950, Queen's Regulations, 1898 :—

"950. In the Royal Engineers, officers, whether married or single, will, in addition to the contribution specified in paragraph 948, but in lieu of that specified in paragraph 952, pay to the head-quarter mess at Chatham one day's pay of their rank annually, provided they are not required to contribute to any other established mess."

II. The words "or Corps Memoranda" are also to be added after the word "orders" at the end of paragraph 956.

III. These amendments will be published in due course in the next revise of the Queen's Regulations.

IV. It is requested that the above be promulgated to all officers concerned in your command.
