GENERAL.

To

THE DIRECTOR GENERAL OF RAILWAYS.

(1)
Calcutta, the 24th November 1894.

SIR,

I am directed to state that the Government of India are pleased to rule that officers attending Railway Conferences or Committees are ordinarily to be considered as carrying out the regular duties of their appointment, unless they are formally deputed on special duty under the conditions of Articles 94—99 A, Civil Service Regulations. Officers so employed will therefore be entitled to daily allowance under Article 1159, Civil Service Regulations, but not to deputation allowances. The restriction as to the 10 days' halt may, however, be waived under clause (b) of that article when this concession appears desirable. x
