Serving a Governor
without a Council, my own attendance daily
not enable me to say that may be the labor & responsibility of the work, but it appears very obvious that to use that as the withdrawal of him
out of the former responsible position
of Govt. cannot possibly coincide with the labor or responsibility of the Secretary,
the inherent duty,
under the unit of a
-onable circumstances,
can be said in that
the Secretary position
could be well attended by the change.

But his attendance

But he has shall have been for many years
needed in the Civil administration of
his Presidency, is practically as succeeded with all administrative details, and is willing, unaided & concerned, to carry
into action his own
policy for the State.
While therefore I will propose to consider that the labor
responsibility of a Secretary can,
under any circum-
then serving a
Gov. without a Council,
I am of opinion
