The Collector of Tanjore.

Sir,

I have the honor to inform you that Mr. H. Hishet is labouring under an attack of mania that will incapacitate him for the performance of any duty for a considerable period. I do not know whether
 Mr. P. S. Moottorasaamy Moodaliam the Native
 Surgeon at Combaconum has reported Mr.
 Hishet's illness to you, but in order that you may be made acquainted with his condition.
 I thought it better for me to write without delay.
 I arrived at Tanjorebar with Mr. Hishet at 2
 A.M. this morning.

I have the honor to be
 Sir,

Your Most Obedt. Servant,

Apr 28th April 1857

A message having been this day forwarded by the Electric Telegraph the accompanying copy is sent also by post for information.

"What is the practice in your office regarding printing for your Proceedings, documents which come up in Original from other offices? As they get soiled in passing through the Press, are printed copies returned in their stead?"
