(Here enter No. 60.)

* In Cons. 22d September 1857.

The establishment recommended by the Collector of Coimbatore for his Press consisted of the following persons.

		Rs.	A.	P.

1	Assistant do.	8	0	0
1	2d do.	7	0	0
1	3d do.	6	8	0
	Total.	39	8	0

2. The Government were of opinion that this establishment was insufficient, and that the duties of compositor and pressman could not be united in the same individual, they accordingly requested that the Collector might be required to revise his scheme.

23d January 1857, No. 92, R. D., p. 4.

3. Mr. Thomas in his present reply, whilst expressing his willingness to conform to the wishes of Government yet offers an opinion that this printing establishment is sufficiently strong and efficient for the work it now has to perform, he therefore solicits permission to work the press with his present means and after he has received his English types, he will then, he states increase his establishment if necessary.

4. The Collector has been furnished, in accordance with the instructions of Government, with a memorandum of the establishment sanctioned, and the reductions made to meet the press charges, in other Districts.

5. As Mr. Thomas is satisfied with working of his press and find his establishment sufficient for all present requirements, the Board would suggest that his arrangements should be allowed to stand, until he is supplied with English types when a larger establishment will certainly be necessary.
