No. 14.

Para. 1. Will be resumed as recommended, in default of heirs.

2. This appears to have been an unauthorized grant in the first instance; and in the absence of any evidence to prove long continued enjoyment, it will be resumed as recommended by the Board of Revenue.

3. In this case two alienations seem to have taken place; the first in 1836, and the last in 1841, to the lately deceased holder. There is nothing before Government to shew that the first vender had any title, and the transactions are comparatively recent. The enam will now be continued to the son of the deceased for his life on the terms proposed.

4. No. 7 is an unauthorized grant; but in consideration of its long continuation in the family, as evidenced by the permanent accounts, it will be continued to the claimant for his life as proposed by the Board of Revenue.

5. Will be resumed for the reasons alleged by the Board.

6. Will be treated similarly to No. 3

7. Further information having been called for, no orders are required on these cases at present.

8. Here, it is observed the last incumbent has left a widow and mother. The enam will be continued to them, to lapse on the death of the survivor.

9. Will be resumed for default of direct heirs; the claims of foster sons, it is observed, have always been viewed as inadmissible.

10. Government will await the further information that has been called for in this case.

(Signed) H. FORBES,
Acting Secretary to Government.

Case 202 1141 -3-

Moved handing to Judge & make the Order of the Records agreeable to the Continuing Bill Same without limitation to the ~~Amended~~ Bill - Yeas & Nays of the Records as required by the Statute - Yeas Murphy Levy Flint & Hall Green

Those accounts such loose statements are very frequent in these Exam reports. In cl 3 the statement that the Registrar in Exam is to keep known in cl 8 of the account open is apparent, while in the face of the B.
of R. that authority does not appear adverts to the long standing practice and takes a recommendation for its terminat-

in the face of his statement in cl 13.
that the accounts
"have been last audited
"is impossible to ascer"tain whether the Exam
"was registered until can take it for granted in cl 8 that the Sent Candidature of the Examinee was the holder at the time of the framing continuance

I beg to point out that the reasons for resumption in this case are manifold

In the first was made [illegible] & cl. 3 & others. Supposing the Summons ceased, such a fact could not be hereditary, much less can it affect the claim for it did not exist and when no evidence of the deceased's connection

2. Even in the case where that claimant is Random of the Grantee; and he consequently cannot claim [illegible] as husband [illegible] the deceased as [illegible] Even that he family is undivided

4 Other Persons besides the Grantee have [illegible] Petitioner

(114)

I reply that this is proved by the production of any deed of maintenance; deed of divorce, the Imam being decidedly hereditary, and it being in the power of God & apostate Jew, why should they do it? They would tell another generation have been in possession & have founded a prescriptive right on such possession
