The object of the Petitioners who are Agraharumdars of the village of Goolyganahully is to obtain permission to sue one of their co-sharers for a piece of enam land which is stated to have been placed in the enjoyment of the father of the latter, in consideration of his services in collecting the Jodigay from the whole body of Agraharumdars and paying it to Government.

3. The present occupant refuses either to give up the land or to perform the duty required of him, and under these circumstances there would appear to be no objection to a compliance with the Petitioner's wishes.
