With reference to the correspondence noted in the margin, I am directed by the Right Honorable the Governor in Council to report that a young white male Elephant with its dam has been captured in the Coimbatore jungles. The animal is described as of the white sort so much prized in Ava and elsewhere, and to be in height 3 feet 6 inches.

2. The Government have directed the Collector of Coimbatore to retain the young Elephant with its mother until further orders, and they now request to be informed whether the Government of India have any instructions to give regarding its disposal.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,

(Signed) H. FORBES,

Acting Secretary to Government.
