ENDORSEMENT.

No. 574.

From a report, No. 217, dated 2d October Fusly 1263, made by the Tahsildar of Goorrumconda talook, in the matter of the petitioner, it appears that the enam in dispute stands entered in the Inamati Chitta of Fusly 20, thus :

$11\frac{1}{2}—\frac{1}{2}$ Kyrati Sarva enam in the name of Bhogam Manga, dancing girl of Goondloor.

$9\frac{1}{2}—4\ \frac{1}{16}$ Ditto in the name of Chelimi, dancing girl of Kadirayachervoo.

Complainant states that the said Manga was her grandmother ; and that while she holds the whole enam in Goondloor and a moiety in Kadirayachervoo ; leaving the other moiety in the enjoyment of her defendants, that the latter claims a share in the enam of Goondloor.

The 1st and 2d defendants state that they enjoy the whole enam in Kadirayachervoo and a moiety in Goondaloor, and that the complainant is interfering with the same.

The witnesses cited, supported their respective sides.

A list among the documents connected with the case shews that the enams in both villages, were held by the parties in equal shares, and a geneological table of the family shews that the parties have common ancestors.

i. e. in equal shares. It is, therefore, decided that the parties should enjoy the enams in both villages, as mentioned in the above list. To this effect, an order (No. 3) has been issued to the Tahsildar on the 15th July of the current year.
