No. 23. ORDER THEREON, No. 321; dated 3*d April* 1857.

With the Proceedings above recorded, the Board of Revenue submit a letter from the Collector of Nellore recommending a reward of Rupees (100) one hundred to Gholam Hoossain Kermany, Peshcar of Betragoontah in the talook of Cavelly of that District, for having given information of concealed cultivation assessed at 920 Rupees. The informer, in the present case was a Peshcar, and the Government observe that it is not usual to grant rewards to their own servants for a simple performance of their duty; but in consideration of the difficulties the Peshcar had to contend with, they are pleased, as a special case, to sanction the reward recommended by the Board, notwithstanding he was a Government Servant. The Government are of opinion that the existence of so extensive a fraud in a single village speaks ill for the activity of the Tahsildar, and that its not having been discovered at the annual settlement shews that the supervision of the Sub-Collector's establishment must have been very superficially exercised.

Acting Secretary to Government.
