Fort Saint George, Revenue Consultation of 21st April 1857.

No. 15. Read the following Extract from the Proceedings of the Board of Revenue; dated 20th March 1857, No. 869.

Read letter from the Acting Collector of Madura, dated In Consultation 20th March 1857. 28th January 1857, requesting to be supplied with a copy of the Madras Almanac.

(Here enter No. 23.)

Resolved that the foregoing letter be submitted for the orders of the Right Honorable the Governor in Council, with the Board's recommendation that sanction be granted for supplying the Acting Collector of Madura with a copy of the Madras Almanac for the present year, the cost of it being included in the bill of Contingent charges.

2. The Board at the same time request that they may be authorized to supply annually a Madras Almanac and an Army List to such Collectors as may apply for them for the use of their offices, as these periodicals are very useful for reference.

3. It is observed that Government have already authorized the Board to furnish annually the Collector of Coimbatore with two sets of the Almanacs and Army Lists of the Bengal and this Presidency for the use of his office and that of the Joint Magistrate at Ootacamund.

No. 16. ORDER THEREON, No. 350; dated 16th April 1857.

The Right Honorable the Governor in Council authorizes the Board of Revenue to supply annually to the Collector of Madura a copy of the Madras Almanac, and order that its cost be included in his Contingent Bill.

2. The Government also sanction the proposition of the Board to supply, at their discretion, each year an Almanac and an Army List to such Collectors as may apply for them.

(Signed) H. FORBES,
Acting Secretary to Government.

Extract from the Pro. of the Board of Rev: 20th March 1857.

I do not know what the usual practice is - there can be no question - that every collector ought to have an Almanac - and every let.

They are not very costly - that purchase by office - but the books are generally supplied

at the store - It

I would sanction the impression of the B.
leaving it to them to exercise their discretion in advising the work of Almanacs and every sort in the contingent B. list of
