Referring to the orders of Government on the Gramabhogum question, as conveyed in the concluding para. of Extract Minutes of Consultation of the 25th October last, No. 1135, sanction is granted for the share held by the late Soobbramien, assessed at Rupees 1-10-1, being continued to his son Punchanadyen.

As recommended by the Collector and the Board, three-fourths of this Enam, being the share actually enjoyed by the late Anooviengar, will be continued to his son on the ground of long possession, and the remainder will be entered in the names of the Gramabhogumdars.

On the ground of long possession, the share held by the late Cuttiem Kooppien, assessed at Rupees 9-13-0, will be continued to his son Vencataramien.

Enam A was granted by Toolagee Rajah in 1789. The deceased was not connected with the family of the original grantee, but obtained his share of the Enam by a bona fide purchase in 1838. Enam B was granted by the same Rajah in 1778, and it is still in the family of the original grantee. The shares* therefore in A and B held by the late Chookappataven, will be continued to his son Appatoray Taven.

This Enam is of old date, having been granted by Toolagee Rajah in 1789. The share under report, assessed at Rupees 7-11-9, was acquired by the late Aroonachellataven by a bona fide purchase in 1843; it will therefore be continued to his son Nayagattaven, as recommended by the Collector and the Board.

On the ground of long possession and the valuable consideration paid, sanction is granted for the share held by the late Iyavien, assessed at Rupees 17-2-10, being continued to his divided brother Iyasawmy Iyen.

This Enam was granted by Toolagee Rajah in 1778. The share held by the late Toppataven was a portion of the land obtained by his grand father from the original grantees, as Coodibhogum. On the ground of long possession, deceased's share, measuring maws 6-8$\frac{2}{64}$, assessed at Rs. 13-13-9, will be continued to his daughter and adopted son, in the proportions mentioned by the Collector.

The late incumbent Toppataven was the grandson of the person who received a portion of this enam as Coodibhogum from the original grantees. On the ground stated in the preceding case, the share of the deceased, assessed at annas 8-8, will be continued to his son Appasawmy Taven.

As recommended by the Collector and the Board, the share in this enam held by the late Ramasawmy Taven, assessed at annas 2-5, will be continued to his widow Yellammal, on the ground of long possession.

(Signed) H. FORBES,
Acting Secretary to Government.
