No. 41. ORDER THEREON, No. 46; dated 12th January 1857.

The Board submit the information called for in regard to the nature of the lands &c. in commutation of which the Pension enjoyed by the deceased Goondoopully Vencatakristna Sashachillaputty Naidoo was given.

2. The papers before Government do not show whether and what (if any) means of support other than the Pension and Enams which the deceased enjoyed, the surviving members of the family possess. The Board of Revenue will be good enough to procure this information and submit it to Government as early as possible.

3. According to the Tabular report of the Collector dated 25th June last, the last incumbent was Vencatakristna Sashachellaputty Naidoo, grandson of the original grantee Vencatuppa Naidoo; whereas in his letter of the 3d October, Vencatakristna Sashachellaputty Naidoo is described as original grantee and Sashachellaputty Naidoo his son as the last incumbent. This discrepancy should be explained.

(Signed) J. D. BOURDILLON,
Secretary to Government.

As these persons interested are women & probably with out other resources. I am disposed to recommend the continuance of the pension for their lives - it might be as well to require proofs of their proper & their means of support.
