*In Con. 18th May 1857.

(Here enter No. 65.)

2. Mr. Thomas states that the Arrack shop at Coonoor was closed at the request of the Officer Commanding Jackatallah, and that the present Abkarry Contractor was fully cognizant of this when he took his contract.

3. There is a beer shop now at Coonoor, and the residents are averse to the re-establishment of one for the sale of Arrack.

4. The Board concur with the Collector that the Contractor has no claim to the privilege he seeks, and do not see any necessity to open an Arrack shop at Coonoor against the wishes of the respectable portion of the community.

5. Mr. Thomas recommends that such number of Arrack shops as may be considered necessary at Jackatallah should be opened within the Military limits, and in the expediency of this course the Board also concur.

(A true Extract.)
