The Copy of the letter of the
To the Acting Collector of Madras

Sir, And Antenneur, & my

Now that the embarkation of troops at the Port of Antenneur has been completed, I think that you will not consider it out of place for me to express to you my sense of the constant & ready assistance which I have received, in my duty as Surperintendent of the embarkation from Mr. C. A. Longley, the Head of the Collector & to Ram and.

To such operations have, I believe, ever been carried on at this port until the present year, and I do not doubt that, for the unremitting attention of the Head of the Collector, and the very zealous and cordial manner in which he has assisted me on every occasion of difficulty, I should have been unable to have carried on the duty with the facility and expedition with which it has been conducted, at a port where the Native Authorities & boatmen have had, until now, no experience whatever in such matters.

I have & you
