To,
The Chief Secretary to the

Dated at Madras the 21st May 1853.

Sir,

N^o 982

In my letter of the 16th ultimo, I requested to be supplied with a statement of the Survey and Settlement establishments, whenever they might be finally adjusted. As some time may elapse before these establishments shall be arranged, perhaps it would be well that I should suggest such establishments as the experience I have had in Surveys and Settlements in other parts tells me will be required, by submitting draft of proposed report on the subject for the consideration and criticism of the Right Honorable the Governor in Council.
