Order no 553 dated 5th June 1857

Fort Saint George, Revenue Consultation of 9th June 1857.

Read the following purport of a Telugoo Petition, dated 10th March 1857, No. 671.

No. 28. From Stree Seeliah Amah widow and legal heir of B. Ramareddy late Munshdar of Jiddungy Talock in Rajahmundry.

Refers to her former petition, complains of the insufficiency of her present allowance prays for orders to grant her an adequate allowance for the maintenance of herself and her family, in consideration of the Monsoobadari estate which was resumed.

Ordered in consequence that the following letter be despatched.

No. 29. From H. FORBES, Esq., Acting Secretary to the Government of Fort St. George to the Secretary to the Government of India, dated 5th June 1857, No. 553.

1. I am directed by the Right Honorable the Governor in Council to submit, for the favorable consideration of the Government of India, the case of Stree Seetiammah, who has petitioned this Government for an allowance for her support, under the following circumstances.

2. Seetiammah is the widow of B. Ramareddy, formerly Chief of Juddungy, a wild hill tract in the Rajahmundry District, whose estate, yielding an average revenue of about 5,000 Rupees a year, was forfeited in 1846, under Clause 2, Section XVIII. Regulation IX. of 1816, on account of his open and armed resistance to Magisterial process. Ramareddy was convicted of gang robbery, attended with aggravating circumstances, sentenced to imprisonment for life, and died recently in Jail.

3. Seetiammah represents that since her husband's imprisonment, she has maintained herself by the sums realized by the sale of her jewels and other property; but that all her resources being exhausted, she is now in indigent circumstances, and has not the means of support. She therefore prays that Government will extend their bounty to her, and grant a monthly allowance for her maintenance.

4. The Collector of Rajahmundry, who was requested to report on her present means of subsistence, states that she is in straitened circumstances, and recommends that an allowance of Rupees 25 per mensem may be granted for her support. The Governor in Council is aware that Stree Seetiammah can make no claim on Government, as a matter of right; but considering her former condition in life, and the unfortunate circumstances by which she has been reduced from comparative affluence to a state of poverty, the Governor in Council is of opinion that her case is deserving of compassionate consideration. He therefore desires me to recommend that a pension of Rupees 25 per mensem may be granted for her support, during her life.

Sir,

I am directed by the Right Honorable the Governor in Council to

Sutamamah is the widow of B. Ramareddy, formerly Chief of Jindanahy whose estate, yielding an average revenue of about of 1816, on account of his open and armed resistance to Magisterial process.

Raimareddy was convicted of gang robbery, attended with aggravating circumstances, sentenced to imprisonment for life, and died recently in jail.

Sectiammak represents that since her husband's imprisonment, she has maintained herself by the sums realized by the sale of her jewels and other property, but that all her resources being exhausted, she is now in indigent circumstances,
