In Cons. 26th June* 1857.

Read letter from the Collector of South Arcot dated 4th April 1857,* furnishing the information called for by Government regarding the nature and salary of the late appointment of Coomky Serishtadar of his District.

(Here enter No. 67.)

Resolved that the foregoing letter be submitted to Government, with reference to Extract from Minutes of Consultation dated 4th March 1857, Revenue Department, No. 227.

2. From the Colllector's explanation it appears that the Coomky Serishtadarship of South Arcot was originally established in 1822. It was afterwards abolished in 1828, was revived under the authority of Government in 1834, and finally discontinued in 1846 upon the abolition of the Inland Transit duties.

3. Tolasinga Chitty held the office from 1838 to 1846, during which period it was a regularly sanctioned and permanent appointment, and salary attached to it was Rupees 137-8-0, or higher than that of any of the Tahsildars of the district.

4. Tolasinga Chitty will therefore be allowed, under the orders of Government dated 4th March 1857, to count as service entitling him to an increase of salary, the period of his employment as Coomky Serishtadar of South Arcot.

The Right Honorable the Governor in Council

The Board of Revenue have the honor to report that Tholasingo Chetty, Country Serishtadar of South Arcot, was appointed to that office by the Board on the 1st March 1838 and has continued to hold it ever since.

The Board are of opinion that the duties of the office are of a responsible character, and that the salary attached to it is not more than adequate to the services required of the person holding it.

The Board therefore recommend that the said Tholasingo Chetty be allowed to count the period of his employment as Country Serishtadar of South Arcot as service entitling him to an increase of salary.
