EXTRACT FROM A LETTER FROM THE HONORABLE THE COURT OF DIRECTORS, DATED 17th JUNE 1857, No. 4.

Letter dated 19th December 1857, No. 40.

Para. 26. The public services of Neelaenunta Row extend over a period of upwards of fifty years, during twelve of which he was employed as Vekeel in a Civil Court. For the last twenty two years he has held the office of Head Sheristadar, first in Salem, and afterwards in Bellary. His services in that capacity have been of the most distinguished character and have been rendered with rare zeal, intelligence and integrity. He also displayed remarkable courage and activity in quelling an insurrection at Sendagi in the Southern Malabar country in the year 1823, and for his conduct on that occasion he received remarkable marks of approbation from Sir John Malcolm and Lord Clare, as well as from his immediate superiors.

Forwarding an application from Neelacanta Row Head Sheristadar of Bellary soliciting the grant of a pension for three lives on his retirement from office.

27. Under these circumstances you submit your strong and unanimous recommendation that Neelacunta Row be granted a pension for three lives, viz. for his own life an amount equal to his full salary of Rupees 8,400 per annum, half that amount or Rupees 4,200 to his next heir, and half that amount again or Rupees 2,100 per annum to the third and last life.
