Fort Saint George, Revenue Consultation of 25th August 1857.

No. 23. Read the following Extract from the Minutes of Consultation in the Military Department under date the 7th August 1857.

Read the following letter from Lieut. Col. CHARLES DENISON, Deputy Adjutant General H. M. Forces ; to the Secretary to Government Military Department, Fort St. George ; dated Madras, 7th August 1857, No. 32.

Sir,

Colonel MacDuff Commanding H. M. 74th Highlanders having made an urgent demand for the services of Captain Priestley now employed on the survey at South Arcot, in order that he may join the Left Wing of the Regiment at Cannanore, I am directed by Major General Beresford to request you will submit to the Right Honorable the Governor his request that the services of this officer may be placed at his disposal for Regimental duty, as in consequence of the detached state of H. M. 74th Highlanders more officers are required than if the Regiment was united, and particularly on the West Coast where out of the 4 Captains, 2 are at the out-posts Mulliapoorum and Calicut.

Referred to the Revenue Department.

(By order,)
