Camp near Matamoras
May 29th 1846

Sir,

I have the honor to inform you that on the 24th inst. I received information from Major Brown, commanding the Post opposite Matamoras, that the Mexican forces were crossing the Rio Grande in large numbers, and that he was threatened with an attack. I immediately ordered Major Brown's garrison, consisting of the 7th Infantry, Lieut. Hawkins' company of Artillery, and Capt.
Walker's company of Texas Mounted Rangers, to join me at this place.
On the 26th inst. I received information from Major Brown that he was attacked on the morning of the 25th inst. by a force of from 2 to 3000 men, and that he had lost 9 killed and 47 wounded. I immediately ordered forward to his relief Capt. Walker's company of Texas Rangers, and Lieut.
Hawkins' company of Artillery, with a detachment of Infantry under Lieut. Inge, 4th Infantry, and Lieut. Hill, 3d Infantry, and marched with the remainder of the disposable force under my command to the relief of Fort Brown.
On the 1st inst. I met the enemy in force, attacked him in his camp, and completely routed him, driving him across the Rio Grande, with the loss of his camp, equipage, ammunition, &c. &c.
Our loss in killed and wounded is severe.
I have the honor to be
