No. 7. Read the following letter from J. W. B. DYKES, Esq., Civil Service; to W. H. BAYLEY, Esq., Acting Secretary to Government in the Revenue Department; dated Rajahmundry 8th July 1858.

SIR,

Not having received a reply to my letter of the 10th April last to your office, I venture to bring the subject therein referred to, again under the notice of Government.

2. I am well aware that an early reply cannot be expected to so wide a subject as the Ryotwar Tenure, but on account of the numerous interests involved, I am the more anxious that the whole subject should be thoroughly discussed by the public before the intentions of Government are finally made known; and with reference to the 2nd para. of my letter, now request permission to publish at once so many copies of the Pamphlet as may not be required by Government. The Pamphlet I had better add, has been printed at my own expense, and will be published by me in my private capacity.

* 10th April 1858.

No. 8. ORDER THEREON, No. 1011; dated 22d July 1858.

The Government have no objection to Mr. Dykes publishing his Pamphlet in his private capacity and disposing of as many copies as he may find a sale for.

(Signed) T. PYCROFT,
Chief Secretary.
