No. 11. Read the following letter from J. D. SIM, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue; to W. H. BAYLEY, Esq., Acting Secretary to Government R. D., dated Fort Saint George; 7th July 1858, No. 2325.

SIR,

Dated 16th June in Cons. 7th July 1858. I am directed by the Board of Revenue to submit for the orders of Government the accompanying letter from the Collector of Rajahmundry, reporting the death of the Proprietor of Gungole, and recommending that the estate be left to the management of the widow of the deceased, who is capable of the duty.

2. The Gungole property comprises four villages and pays a Peishcush of twelve hundred and odd Rupees per annum. The family left by deceased consists of a widow, a son aged 14 and a daughter aged 12 years.

3. The minor will attain his majority in four years time, and as the estate has been, and is likely to be, well managed, the Board do not consider that their interference as Court of Wards is at all necessary, they would therefore support the Collector's recommendation that the property be left in charge of the widow.

No 12. ORDER THEREON, No. 1013; dated 22d July 1858.

The Collector of Rajahmundry reports the death of the proprietor of the Gungole Estate, comprizing four villages and paying an annual peishcush of Rupees 1,264-13-10, and recommends that the estate may be left to the management of the widow, until the son, an intelligent lad of 14 years, attains his majority. Mr. Purvis says that the estate was creditably managed by the late proprietor, that the widow is capable of continuing such management, and that there is no balance against the estate. The Collector's recommendation is supported by the Board of Revenue, who are of opinion that there is no necessity for their interference as Court of Wards. Agreeably to such recommendation therefore, the Government grant authority for the Gungole estate being left to the management of the widow of the late proprietor, during the minority of the son; but desire, as proposed by the Collector himself, that he will be careful to make enquiry from time to time of the success of the widow's management, and will intimate to her that should circumstances render it expedient, the management of the estate will be assumed by the Court of Wards.

(Signed) T. PYCROFT,
Chief Secretary.
