Order No 205 of 16th Feb 1858

Fort Saint George, Revenue Consultation of 16th February 1858.

No. 61. Read the following Extract from the Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 28th January 1858, No. 411.

Read Extract Minutes Consultation dated 20th November 1857.

(Here enter No. 1186.)

The Board regret to find that they omitted to obtain the authority of Government, when authorizing the temporary transfer of the Nurgaguntty Polliem to Coopoo Naid* and (on his death) to his son.†

2. Coopoo Naid tendered what the Civil Court considered good and sufficient security and subsequently paid up arrears due on the property. The Board therefore did not see any objection to his being placed in possession of the Polliem merely pending the final decision of the Sudder Court. On his death the succession of his son appeared to follow as a matter of course, and in disposing of the Collector's reference, the necessity of applying to Government did not present itself to the Board.

Memorandum
No. 411

Extract from the Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 28th January 1858.

Read Robert A. Macleod's
Communication dated 20th & 21st December 1857.

(New York, 11/10/61)

The Board regret to find that they are obliged to obtain the authority of Government, when authorizing the temporary transfer of the 2nd Regiment of Police to the 1st Bⁿ. The 28th July 1858. Said order was given to his son.

2. Occasion said transfer that the Court would consider good and sufficient
security and subsequently paid up arrears due on the property. The Board therefore did not see any objection to his being placed in possession of the Police, thereby providing the final decision of the Sadr Court. On his death the succession of his son appeared to follow as a matter of course, and in disposing of the Collector's reference, the necessity of applying to Government did not arise.

not present, sent to the Board.
