Revenue Department

No.

Extract from the Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 2d December 1857.

Read letter from the Acting Collector of Canara dated 20th July 1857.

Whereupon it is

Ordered

The Board consider the above report as generally very satisfactory. They remark however that in some of the Offices the work done since the entertainment of additional Servants is very limited. They allude particularly to the Offices of the two Sub Collectors, the Talook Cutcheries, of Sunkul Coddipy and Pootoor and that of the Purkoor of Honore.

2 The Board trust that the European Officers of the District will be able to visit most of the Record Rooms in the Course of each year and practically test the arrangement of the papers, as well as inspect their Condition.

3. The Board wish to know what

Annexed [illegible]

amount of Boats & loading implements are required by the Collector and whether if supplied, they can be worked without extra expense.
