No. 73. Read the following Extract from the Proceedings of the Board of Revenue ; dated 15th February 1858, No. 624.

* In Consultation 15th February 1858. Read Tabular Report in letter from Collector of Rajahmundry dated 30th June 1857.*

The Enam is a charity grant said to have been made by the Zemindar in 1758. The original Sunnud is not forth-coming and the only documents produced are a declaration from the village Curnums in 1812, to the effect that the Enam had been enjoyed for 50 years and 3 Doombalahs for Fuslies 1219-20-22.

2. The deceased incumbent was brother to the Son-in-law of the Son of the original grantee and died in 1856. The Board concur with the Collector that as the deceased was only a connection by marriage, his family have no valid claim to his share which they recommend for resumption.

3. The other shares will be reported on as lapses occur.

No. 74. ORDER THEREON, No. 276; dated 2d March 1858.

The last incumbent was brother of the husband of the eldest grand-daughter of the original grantee, and under these circumstances the Government agree with the Collector and Board of Revenue that his family have no claim whatever to a continuance of the enam. The share held by deceased will accordingly be brought under assessment.
