No. 16. ORDER THEREON, No. 287; dated 4th March 1858.

1. In submitting, with their letter of the 23rd September 1857, estimates of charges proposed to be incurred in Fusly 1267, on account of additional establishments in certain districts, the Board of Revenue excluded* the charge proposed in Kurnool for extra Jummabundy Goomastahs at a cost of Rupees 600, for want of sufficient explanation.

* Para. 5.

2. With their Proceedings above recorded, the Board of Revenue now submit a letter from the Officiating Agent at Kurnool, in which that officer explains that the establishment formerly applied for by him is absolutely necessary to examine the fields, in order to ascertain the condition and value of the crops, &c., as affected by the unfavorable season and deficient supply of water in the tanks. The Board of Revenue concur in the views expressed by the Agent, and recommend the estimate for sanction.

3. The Government must observe that the reason assigned by the Officiating Agent is not sufficient to justify their sanctioning the charge, as it is equally applicable to many other districts, where no such aid has been demanded. Besides this, the duty of examining fields is important, and requires experience, and cannot be entrusted to irresponsible parties who may be temporarily employed. It ought to be done by the permanent establishment, while the additional hands, if allowed at all, should be employed in writing the Jummabundy accounts. Under the new system of village accounts, there is hardly any necessity for any copies being taken from the accounts prepared by the Curnums.

4. The cost too of the establishment asked for, viz. 600 Rupees is large for the object for which it is required. As however Captain Russell represents that extra aid is absolutely necessary to enable him to perform his work, the Right Honorable the Governor in Council will not object to authorize him to entertain the establishment he applies for, on the distinct understanding that no similar charge will be allowed in future years.

Acting Secretary to Government.
