Fort Saint George, Revenue Consultation of 12*th March* 1858.

No. 79. Read the following Extract from the Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 18th February 1858, No. 648.

In Cons.* 18*th Nov.* 1857. †In Cons. 22*nd Dec.* 1857. ‡In Cons. 15*th Feb.* 1853. Read again letters from the Acting Collector of Malabar, dated 31st August* and 1st December† 1857. Read also letter from the same officer, dated 6th January 1858.‡

(Here enter No. 5.)

1. Resolved that the foregoing letters and the enclosure of the first be submitted for the orders of the Right Honorable the Governor in Council.

§In Cons. 6*th Dec.* 1847. Dated 15*th Nov.* 1847. 2. In Extract Minutes Consultation, dated 25th November 1847,§ No. 1288, R. D. Government sanctioned, on the recommendation of the Board of Revenue, the employment of the temporary establishments noted in the margin for the three inland Salt Depots proposed to be established at Ootapolnium, Allatoor and Palghaut in the Malabar District for the purpose of competing with the cheaper salt brought from the Cochin State, and so preventing smuggling. As the measure was experimental the employment of the establishments was not sanctioned for a definite period. But on the 9th March 1852 the Government authorized the continuance of the Salt Depots till the close of Fusly 1264, and subsequently their retention was sanctioned till the end of Fusly 1266; of course while the sale of salt continued at the Depots it was necessary that the establishments should be retained, but the Civil Auditor objects to pass the charge on this account subsequent to Fusly 1264, as he considers the orders of the 3rd June 1856 for the continuance of the Salt Gollahs insufficient for the retention of their establishments. The salary of the Kolkars the Acting Collector states was altered under the orders of Government dated 18th September 1855, No. 1058, R. D. sanctioning revised rates of pay for the whole of the peons of the District. This alteration however did not affect the total sum sanctioned as the full salary of the Peshcar was not paid to him; it being left discretional with the Collector to raise the Peshcar's pay as his responsibilities increased.

3. Under these circumstances, the Board of Revenue recommend that the Civil Auditor may be authorized to admit the charges incurred in Fusly 1265 on account of the Extra Establishments employed at the Salt Depots at Ootapollium, Allatoor and Palghaut, amounting as particularized in the statement furnished by the Acting Collector to Rupees 697-8-0. To avoid further reference the Board also recommend that the Civil Auditor may be directed to pass the charges on the same account to the 1st January 1858, from which date the Acting Collector purposed withdrawing the establishments, as the Stock of salt was expected to be cleared off by that date.
