No. 59.

No. 9. Extract from the Minutes of Consultation under date the 14th January 1858.

Tabular Report of lapsed enams in Bellary for the 3d Quarter of 1856; dated 17*th February, and submitted by the Board of Revenue on the* 7*th December* 1857.

* Ex. Mins. Cons. 13*th Jan.* 1852.
† ,, 22*d July* 1853.

1. Ten lapses are reported in the Tabulat Statement recorded above; on two however Nos. 3* and 8†, the Government have already passed orders, and they require no notice at present; the Government proceeds to dispose of the remaining eight cases.

2. This is a grant in lieu of resumed Nâdgowd enams. The assessment of the land is nearly 650 Rupees per annum. Three individuals, viz. the widow of the eldest son of the registered holder, and the two widows of his younger son, are the only members of the family remaining. The Government are of opinion that the simplest course to pursue will be to continue a third of the whole to each widow; each share to be resumed on the death of its holder. The report does not say whether the sister of deceased is married or is a widow, if the former she has no claim to support, if the latter, the Collector will arrange for her support and the three widows inheriting the enam.

3. The origin of this grant is unknown. The deceased holder was the grandson of the individual in whose name the enam is registered in the accounts, and this fact should have been set forth in Column 5 of the Statement, he has now died without issue, leaving an adopted son and two female relations. The adoption, even if there were no room to question its legality, is not one that Government would be disposed to recognize, and the grant will be continued as recommended by the Board to the mother and sister-in-law of the deceased to lapse at the death of the survivor of them.

In 1837, on the extinction of the Nâdgowd family, the enam was confirmed by Government to the deceased, but the order gave no hereditary title; and the Government see no objection to continuing the share ‡ rightly possessed by the deceased, to his son Venkoba,§ to be held rent free until he attains his majority. The portion held in excess of the grant will be at once resumed. It was, as the Board remark, altogether irregular on the part of the Collector to continue the share in question without previous sanction.

The origin of this enam is unknown, and the deed of gift under which it is claimed by the nephew of the deceased is, the Collector states, open to suspicion, as the name of the deceased is not entered in the public accounts until Fusly 1257; the lapse took place in January 1853; only 6 years enjoyment is thus proved, and the heirs of the deceased are provided for; under these circumstances the Government concur with the Collector and Board of Revenue and direct that the enam be resumed.

9. This is a grant without sunnud; it was alienated from the family of the registered holder in 1846; and the donee died in 1851, having only enjoyed it for 5 years. No "prescriptive title" could probably be said to have arisen from so short a possession, and the whole enam will be resumed as recommended by the Board of Revenue.

Nos. 3 and 8.

10. Adverting to the two life grants which were needlessly included in the Tabular Statement now reviewed, it would perhaps be advisable if the Board were to instruct all Collectors to resume life grants without further reference or report; and if, in giving endorsements to parties who wish to appeal against such orders of resumption, Collectors were to specify the paragraph and date of the order of Government which refers to the case, the Government would be enabled to pass final orders on such petitions without calling for a report, which is now often not the case.

Statement Col. 7.

11. The Governor in Council takes this opportunity to remark that, in stating the means of support possessed by the family who claim an enam, due consideration should be given to any Government lands they may possess, as well as any enam lands, other than those under notice.

(Signed) H. FORBES,
Acting Secretary to Government.

perhaps be advisable if the Board were to instruct all
Collectors to assume life hands
