In Con. 14th July 1858. Read Extract Minutes Consultation, dated 24th June 1858, R. D.

Communicating for any remarks, the Board may wish to offer on the suggestions therein contained, a report from Messrs. E. T. Harrison and J. Breeks, having reference to the introduction of the Bengal system of Account in the District of North Arcot. (Here enter No. 869.)

The changes proposed by Messrs. Harrison and Breeks appear to affect only servants connected at present with the Department of Accounts, and the Board see nothing to call for any observations from them.

2. It would be convenient if in future the present designations and departments of the Officers affected were stated, as it is not easy to trace them otherwise. Some of the Goomastahs herein referred to, are entered in the Moyenzabitah in the Sheristah Department, and not as might have been expected in that of Accounts.
