that the request of the Petitioners may be granted, but the Government are unable to ^{accede to this} comply with their request.

It is observed that the Inān is not only without title but is unsupported by any Registry. Consequently, its alienation by the family of the Petitioners to Kāder Sāhib in 1855, was directly opposed to the express terms of the Notification of 1848 and the Inān became de jure an escheat to the State by that alienation a transfer. The Govt ^{therefore consid} direct that the Inān ~~should~~ ~~be~~ brought to the full appearance; but by giving these directions it will be desirable

for the B^d of Revenue to ascertain & report
to Govt
whether they consider the tenure sufficient, &
on what ground.
Meanwhile
no permission
can be given to sue in Court
