IN CON. 28TH FEBRUARY 1859. No. 802.

From The HONORABLE D. ARBUTHNOT, Collector of KURNOOL, dated Kurnool, 23rd February 1859, No. 13.

I have the honor to bring to the notice of the Board that no Assistant has been yet appointed to this District and beg to point out that owing to a large part of the District being new to my Cutcherry the work of the District during this Jummabundy is very heavy and will occupy a long time. I therefore request that the Board will be pleased to urge on Government the necessity of appointing a Head Assistant as soon as possible.
