Memo.

Mr. Boardman called on me yesterday with the lists of the Dep^t Collection.
With the remarks of Mr. Elliot & Mr. Lane-head - I considered the matter within and it appeared that it was very expedient - that two or three of the 4th apptments - which Mr. Boardman with mention - should be made at once & as most of the others - which had been suggested by him in communication with the Board were now belonging to the Dep^t - I thought it to be 1 When ^{quoted} he first ~~as it was~~ mentioning the names mentioned particularly by Mr. Abbott & adding Mr. Smith's

I must mention this to my colleagues. That these names were not passed over without due consideration.
I should have stated this in my writing yesterday. But that I happened to be very busy at the time of my handwriting this.

March 26/59. It can be seen quite satisfied the appointments published in the Gazette were all right & proper. Indeed Mr. Handellon wrote to me this morning under what was the arrangement had been made at our meeting.

2
Satisfactory

Names. Govt House
March 27/59.

I am sorry to trouble my colleagues with a matter of business but a subject was brought long notice last Wed. which would of not settled at once. We certainly referred to them - on some early occasion. I write re: Gordon which I had to say that Sir Charles Glynne had been troubled on his arrival. and as Mr. E. Underwood. Sub. Collector of Bastard, requested an interview with me yesterday I. in view of the fact that he felt his son Mr. E. Underwood had been afforded by the Gazette of Friday 26th in which he was nominated a Dep. Collector 4th Class - was removed from the charge of the Salt depot. & was a loan in salary of 50 Rs per annum.

I replied. that I imagined that as far as present salary. his son was a gain. - inasmuch as I believed. he received only 200 Rs. now. until he had passed. whereas as Dep^y Collector & Chap. - he wd get 250 Rs. in the prospect of promotion.

He answered. that was true. but that his son's papers were already before the Bd of Rec^d. but he had very expectations of passing. & that he wd have within the 300. Rs. so that actually he wd be almost immediately a loan holder. but discredited of being improved.

I told Mr. Andrews. that I had heard that Mr. Lushette wished for a person of greater experience to be in charge of the Salt arrangement.

18
- was surprised when this. as he said Mr. Lushette. had told his son. but he was very sorry. ~~What~~ that he was refrused - that he was ready to support him in his representation to the Board of Rec^d in the subject - & Mr. Andrews added. that he thought under the circumstances. of this matter provisional & obvious. w^{ch} the case as it stood. he was not asking too much to request his son might be transferred to the Salt Chap.

I added remark. that having no knowledge of the persons fitted for Dep^y Collector. I had left the selection to be made by the Board.

in communication with Mr. B. & had of Mr. B. & I think Mr. Boardman had present in discussion with Mr. B. & Mr. B. in the subject.

He had mentioned some that Mr. B. had was necessary to get a more experienced man for the Salt. so he found Mr. Boardman not of much use for that important change - & he (Mr. B.) had recommended Mr. B. who which was made by the Executive.

I was unaccountably much surprised when what Mr. Boardman stated in regard to Mr. B. opinion. & wrote to Mr. Boardman about it. having had previously an opportunity of speaking to Mr. B. who happened to be at that time in a deputations at the time.

5 time as Mr. Boardman - ~~stated~~ in his subject.

^{Mr. Boardman}
He was not - & thought that the members of the Bd were not aware of Mr. B. had with to procure a more experienced officer in lieu of Mr. Boardman - & he appeared to think that the impudence of the Bd was - (tho. he did not state positively) that it was a hard taskmaster for Mr.
Boardman - but he was placed in the third class.

I asked him to see Mr. Boardman & I also wrote to Mr. B. explaining what had occurred -

I received his reply this morning.

enclosing one note from Mr. [unclear] - & it appears there is another on the same subject.

I enclose both notes. Mr. B. & Mr. C. for perusal.

By the latter. There appears little doubt that Mr. C. wd prefer a more experienced ^{assistant} viz. it is quite possible. he may have expended himself subsequently as stated by Mr. Underwood.

Mr. Brundellon, it will be seen, thinks that Mr. Underwood's qualifications do not entitle him to a higher grade. I suggest that if he can pass - his salary shd be made up to the 300 Rs. to which he would have been entitled had he remained at the Salt depot. but he ^{thinks} - it wd be unfair to others, whom he considers superior. I advise him to the 3rd Class.

In respect to Mr. Underwood's qualifications. I think Mr. B. is probably correct. but I fear. that Mr. Underwood of 50 Rs. add. would not prevent future complaints or a feeling of unfair treatment. inasmuch as the complainant is placed in the 3rd Class. & has no actual experience of the work. & with regard to the injustice to others. I think that is hardly the case. as Mr. Underwood's qual. is scarcely second in his own merits. but that from the position which he actually occupied - & for which it is apart - apart - it might be from ^{the position} ^{of the case} ^{was pushed} - he convinced by him himself - that he was rapidly fitting himself for the dictator -

I have made a long story of this - but I am desirous of laying the whole matter before you in order to elicit of the opinions of the members -

My own feeling is that I should be doing to leave this last - doing - as one of the last acts - What might be considered as being done act towards the Board - towards an old affair of Mr Andrews's standing - & I who also regret very much - that in 7 Charles Gregory and be frustrated - as I think it is pretty certain he would - with a case of the kind - & therefore I am disposed to think that it would be the more certain method of settling the matter - I propose that in the next Gazette Mr W. S. and board for and be transferred to the 3rd class - he might still remain as presented to South Arrest - and thus - I think - there could be no prejudice on the part of any - He made justly -

And perhaps some of the 4th class may be equal to him in accomplishments - but more I imagine - they have all passed by the fact of appointment to the Lth Clap.

I shall be glad however to learn the opinions of my colleagues on the subject.

I should add - that so far as I can judge I think Mr. Bannister was quite correct in the advice he gave me - as to the transfer of Mr. Bannister from the district.

Yours truly
March 27/59

H

If my colleagues agree with with the return of the ^{of appointment} ~~summit~~ - which inculcate - add a para: proposing that

- mentioned - which I have now inserted in pencil. I shall like an initial if they agree H will not offer any opposition to the transfer of Mr. Underwood from the third class under the correct stated in the report after the opinions of the committee with from his original appointment, because help expressing my concurrence in the sentiments contained in Mr. Underwood's note.

I would remark in response to Mr. Underwood's letter that the list of applicants first sent to me I pointed out that Mr.
Underwood was the longest time in the 3d class I did not know of it as I knew nothing of it at the time I gave the list to the committee. I am glad that it is to be removed and I hope that the committee will be able to do so.

Notes

I enclose the list of two road appointments of Dep. Comm. together with drafts of an order. There are a few names in the list on which it seems proper to make some remarks.

Mr. Lyons,
Gangin -

This man is now an un-covenanted assistant in the U.S. office. Mr. Smith gives him a good character for sincerity & intelligence.
Mr. Foster, Comm. of Gangin, wishes to get him as Salt Salt no salary of 300 Reb. which he supposed he was to have the power of offering him. There was much difficulty in finding a good man for the Treasury in this District.
& we thought (J.E. Smith & myself) that this man might possibly be sent

This is the man men.

Arrived yesterday at Council by Mr. Elliot - He is the son of the late Mr. R. S. P. of Bellary - I believe he has no English education; but he is a man of activity & energy & distinguished himself in various ways in following & taking some good resolutions - I think it will be well to use him out of Bellary; & I suppose his name because I found it difficult to hit on a proper man for Vizagapatam - Mr J. Wood is now head writer at Cuddalore.

Anna Row -
Vizagapatam

His father who resided at Bellary is now very old & frail - I think he will be pleased if his son be employed at such a distance that he will not be troubled again - He has been posted to some distant place to Bellary? M

Mr J. Wood
Cuddalore -

He is of a very respectable family at Bellary, where his Father holds the same Post - I understand from him, who knew his father there, that he has been very competent & well brought up - But he does not know this man personally -

15 Then the information about him is rather scanty; I put down his name for the Treasury at Bellary, as we found much difficulty in getting a suitable man for that Post - He is not a very young man, as might be expected from his father being still in the service -

Chinnaswamy Pillay }
Commissioner

He arrived at Bellary yesterday - He is known to
Mr. Elliot -
He is a man of high character & is well qualified for the Post -

Srinivas Menon }
Commissioner

yesterday - He is known to
Mr. Elliot -
He is a man of
high character & is

This is the man whom

I mentioned at Council
yesterday - He is known to
Mr. Elliot -

This is the eldest son of Mr. Srinivas Menon late Commissioner of Tanjavur -

He is now Dist. Magistrate at Ponnai - Mr. Robinson gives him a very high character of him; & I think from what I hear, that he is excellently qualified for the Post in which I have how to place him. He is about 35 years of age -

I am not quite sure that I have got the name correctly; but Robinson is to let me know for certain what the name is, in the course of the afternoon -

March 23/59

I have written to Lord Barnardiston concerning the name of Ramchindran Ram dip's father's name.

In the 1st class of English must be found. But there for and in other respects to my regret.

The husband of the late Annie of Lochinore. I think observes that placement - one should well educated young man I am very anxious

Wish a good man 1st or 2nd class. For I think he might be the European of a suggestion of the minds.

At

The only name that occurs to me is Mr Ouchterlony of the 1st class. I have not heard of him in the 1st class.

Perhaps Mr. Robinson will know more.

W M

John is meant to make reference to Callerton, or it may be better to reserve a larger margin of selection?

Many of the names in the list I do not know. Others that I do know the good men may not be better - perhaps not as good as men in the provinces whose claims may be brought before the proposed ref. to the Maj.

Would it not therefore be advisable to suspend all the nominations in the fourth class, with the exception of the last Ser? until the replies have been rec'd from all?

I believe I find him to be an excellent man & I think

Heck has ~~Adm~~ Adm. help

This a great pity to take
