Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, from 5th to 21st October 1859.

No. 5. Read the following letter from W. HUDLESTON, Esq., Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue; to J. D. BOURDILLON, Esq., Secretary to Government R. D., dated 19th September 1859, No. 3731.

Board to Government 7th June 1858, No. 1996, para. 6.
E. M. C. 20th July 1858, No. 991 R. D. para. in Con. 24th July 1858, No. 3190.
E. M. C. 15th March 1859, R. D. No. 326, in Con. 17th March 1859.

With reference to the correspondence noted in the margin, I am directed to report that the Board arranged with their late colleague, Mr. W. H. Bayley, to procure for them in England the Crockery, Plated-ware, &c., sanctioned for the public Bungalows at this Presidency.

2. Mr. Bayley has now informed them that he has procured the articles with certain very desirable additions, at an aggregate saving on the Board's estimate of about Rupees 5,450.

3. The accompanying statement shows in juxta-position the prices of the different things as settled by Mr. Bayley and as originally estimated by the Board. As printed in paragraph 6 of their letter above quoted, of which Government approved in the paragraph 4 of the first of the Extract Minutes Consultation also above referred to, it was not practicable to adhere to the estimate in every item, but the result on the whole has been the large saving abovementioned, which the Board expect will considerably more than cover freight and other charges. From Mr. Bayley's long experience of India the Board have no doubt that his selection of articles will be fully approved, and they are much indebted to him for the trouble he has taken to enable them to carry out the wishes of Government. They found it impracticable to procure so large a supply here, and uniformity of pattern would have been out of the question.

Dated 20th July 1858, R. D. No. 991, in Con. 24th July 1858, No. 3190.

4. In regard to the lamps, the Board approve of what Mr. Bayley has done. The articles for which they estimated were of course of an inferior description, for with so many bungalows to furnsih, it was impossible to give the prices which would here have been necessary for really superior things.

5. The Board direct me to request that they may be authorised to remit to Mr. Bayle a moiety of the amount of his purchases, to be paid by him when the goods have been shipped, after his previous approval.

6. The Board have lately caused to be made up and have sent to bungalows around Madras, the punkahs, washing stands and other articles for which it was not necessary to send to England.
